Ice breaking Session

Every year we organize ice breaking session for newly joined undergraduate and postgraduates. Ice breaking sessions are important fun activities that help to know each other. It is a way to break the ice on the first day of college. This activity aims to make conditions more comfortable. This comfortable condition will make activities run smoothly.

This session is done on the day of orientation program. Seniors and juniors interact with each other in healthy manner. This help to create a relaxed environment where they share ideas and participate in different activities.

Icebreakers are typically quick, low stakes activities that encourage students to become more familiar with their peers. These session increase solidarity between participants.
