2.2.3 - Institution facilitates building and sustenance of innate talent /aptitude of individual students (extramural activities/beyond the classroom activities such as student clubs, cultural societies, etc)

Co-curricular activities prepare students practically for the future. The normal curriculum can only go so far as to teach and educate students about academic theories. But students whose only experience of school or college is one of rigid academic study may not be able to apply what they have learned in practice. We at I.T.S Dental College believe that co-curricular activities are particularly good at providing opportunities for students to work in teams, to exercise leadership, and to take the initiative themselves. Hence we give equal focus on non academic activities as well for our student development and welfare.

The institute comprises the various clubs and societies which nurtures the innate talent of individual students and boosts their confidence. These enlisted clubs are as follows:

2.3.5 - The teaching learning process of the institution nurtures creativity, analytical skills and

innovation among students

Nurturing creativity is important because it gives them the opportunity to create something tangible from personal feelings and experiences—a reflection of their problem-solving methodology, unique imaginations as an individual.

Similarly, Analytical skills are important because it allows you to find solutions to common problems and make decisions about what actions to take next. Understanding problems and analyzing the situation for viable solutions is a key skill for individual development.

Innovation in education encourages teachers and students to explore research and use all the tools to uncover something new. New drugs, diagnostic methods, drug delivery systems, and medical devices offer the hope of better treatment. Since we are offering two different courses to our students, besides the curriculum being different, we also have a different classroom and clinical approach.

Similarly, for PG students we have a very similar approach, only since the programme is more department- specific, we have each department design a special curriculum for these students. Other than students deciding on the best course of treatment for cases allotted to them, JC and seminars are also conducted to help them in keeping in touch with the latest ongoings of the speciality for both practical and theoretical learning.

At ITS Dental College we strongly believe in imparting quality education with a holistic approach for an overall growth of our students, our faculty members and our staff members, which in-turn uplifts the institute. The enthusiastic departments under the guidance of our highly energetic heads of the department take turns and help us celebrate/observe the historical backgrounds of the important days and dates in the era of development of medical and dental fraternity e.g., World No Tobacco Day, World AIDS Day, World Cancer Day, World Oral Health Day, World Oral Hygiene Day, National Doctor's Day, World Diabetes Month, World Dentist Day, International Day against Drug Abuse, World Hepatitis day, World Radiology Day, World Oral and Maxillofacial Surgeon's Day, World Orthodontic Day, World Trauma Day etc. The above programs are celebrated together in any of the halls of the college depending upon the number of students attending and are often graced by a Chief-guest/ learned, renowned speaker who delivers a thought provoking talk or creates a brain storm.

Our efforts don't end with the latter which are of relevance for a dentist but in order to inculcate in students the appreciation and respect for India's rich heritage

7.3 - Institutional Distinctiveness

7.3.1 - Portray the performance of the Institution during the year in one area distinctive to its priority and thrust within 100 - 200 words

SURGERY FOR THE POOR

Healthcare has made huge improvements over the years making treatments feasible and more predictable.

I.T.S has always strived to provide the best of the treatment using the latest techniques and equipment. But the newer drugs, technologies and equipment also leads to increase in treatment costs, making the access to healthcare difficult for the economically weaker sections.

The institution has earmarked an amount of 50,000 INR per year to help the needy. This amount is utilized to treat patients who require oral & maxillofacial surgeries under general anesthesia, and are unable to afford the cost of drugs, materials and services required during hospitalization.

8.1.8 - The Institution has introduced objective methods to measure and certify attainment of specific clinical competencies by BDS students/interns as stated in the undergraduate curriculum by the Dental Council of India.

I.T.S Dental College, Greater Noida always strives for introducing newer teaching methods for students to improve their knowledge absorption and clinical aptitude. One such method adopted here is the OSCE system: Objective Structured Clinical Examination. It is a hands-on, real-world approach that keeps examinees engaged, allows them to understand key factors that drives clinical decision making process and challenges the student to be innovative and reveals their errors in case-handling.

The objective was to remove prejudice in examining students and allows all to go through the same scope and criteria for assessment.

Peer reviewed system has been introduced to assess theory examination papers as well as for clinical examinations.

For theory examination:

• Each answer sheet of each student is evaluated by 2 separate examiners.

• Evaluation & marks given for each question is then entered on separate marks distribution sheet by each evaluator.

• In cases of 10+- Standard deviation in any question the said question is checked by the Professor & final marks are entered.

Clinical evaluation: is assessed on the basis of

- 1. Case history taking
- 2. Diagnosis & prognosis
- 3. Treatment Plan

4. Clinical treatment assessment as per the individual department.
